Prime Minister's Office

Islamabad, Pakistan

Your Excellency

I urge you to release Idris Khattak, Pakistan's expert on enforced disappearances, who has himself been subjected to enforced disappearance.

If there is credible and admissible evidence that he has committed an internationally recognized crime, then please try him promptly and fairly in a civilian ordinary court, without recourse to the death penalty. If not, release him immediately and unconditionally.

His daughters have not seen Idris since he was abducted in November 2019. They don't know where he is or whether he can take his medication. They just want their father back home safe with them.

You once made a promise to make enforced disappearance a crime under national law. Now is your chance to honour that pledge.

Yours sincerely
